THE INAUGURAL PARADE

OVER THIRTY THOUSAND MEN IN LINE TODAY.

A Big Day at Washington—A Battalion From Porto Rico Taking Part in the Exercises—Army in Line.

WASHINGTON, February 20.—The inaugural parade arrangements are being made along the same lines as four years ago. The escort of the President from the White House to the Capitol when he goes to be inaugurated will be the first military division and the regular army and district troops. The main procession will move from the Capitol grounds up Pennsylvania avenue and past the presidential reviewing stand within the court of honor. General Francis Greene will be grand marshal of the parade.

A report from the committee on civic organizations showed that more than 6,000 men are expected to be in line in that division of the parade, not including about 2,500 marching college students. From the committee on military organizations, it was reported that about 19,500 men, including the regular army contingent are expected to march. Orders were issued at the War Department today for the transport Rawlins, which has just arrived in New York from Cuba, to proceed to San Juan, P. R., for the purpose of bringing to the United States the Porto Rican battalion which is to take part in the inauguration ceremonies in this city. The vessel will leave next Wednesday and the troops will be disembarked at Newport News on the 2d proximo and brought to this city by rail. The Rawlins has too much draft for the Potomac river. The Porto Ricans will return home after the inauguration by way of New York in order to give them an opportunity to see the metropolis.

OUR HEALTH LAST MONTH

WERE NINETY-ONE DEATHS IN FEBRUARY.

Constitutional Troubles Were Cause of Largest Number Being Carried Away. Interesting Facts from Report.

The February report of the Board of Health shows that there were a total of 91 deaths during the 28 days of that period. Of this the largest percentage was of infants under one year of age, twenty dying. The death rate for the month is 2.31 for every thousand inhabitants.

Pulmonary tuberculosis was the principal cause for death, there being 17 cases. Four succumbed to the attack of dysentery and nine to inflammation of the intestines and nine to pneumonia. In the gastro-enteric column are recorded four deaths. The causes of death appear to be quite varied. There were three, each from senile marasmus, old age, acquired syphilis, diarrhoea and bronchitis. Two died from typhoid fever and a similar number from inanition, enterocolitis, valvular disease of the heart, apoplexy, and chronic nephritis.

The other causes of death were malaria fever, septicaemia, anæmia, cancer of the liver, cancer of the stomach, cancer of the womb, congestion of the brain, hemorrhage of the brain, convulsions, tetanus, fatty degeneration of the heart, plmonary congestion, gastric ulcer, obstruction of the intestines, inflammation of the liver, shock, puerperal convulsions, puerperal peritonitis, child birth, Bright's disease.

Under the general heads there were 21 deaths from constitutional troubles, 18 from the digestive and 13 from the respiratory. Out of the total of 91 deaths, 59 were males and 32 females. There were 52 Hawaiians, who died in that month, 11 Chinese, 6 Portuguese, 11 Japanese, 2 Great Britain, 5 United States, and 4 of other nationalities.

IT WANTS SAFE QUARTERS

BUNGALOW NOT YET READY FOR THE SENATE.

Commissioner of Public Works Asked To Make a Report on It—House Tax Commission Resolution.

The Senate this morning took steps to see that its new quarters in the Bungalow are entirely safe before the senators trust themselves to hold sessions there. The House Tax Commission resolution, made the special order for Wednesday. The Governor's biennial estimates are the special order for this afternoon.

All members of the Senate were present at the opening of this morning's session. The start of business was exceedingly slow, however, due to its being Monday, and also to the fact that most of the lawmakers of the upper house were weary from the trip to Molokai.

A communication from the House announced the passage of the resolution, mentioned Friday, providing for a commission to look into the matter of taxation.

Cecil Brown moved that consideration of the resolution be postponed until Wednesday. All of the House members immediately looked at Cecil Brown to know what he was doing. Cecil Brown, so that Kakuokalani immediately arose and seconded the motion.

In this connection Mr. Baldwin explained at some length the work of a commission, consisting of himself, A. C. Robertson and W. R. Castle, appointed by the governor some time ago. Really very little had been accomplished as yet.

The motion of Mr. Brown passed. Mr. White moved that 150 copies of the journal be printed daily until such time as the proper committee makes other arrangements. Mr. Carter fully supported this idea. He believed the journal should be printed in both English and Hawaiian and mailed all over the country.

Mr. Achi raised the point of order that the resolution was being forced in ahead of reports of committees, contrary to the rules. The point was sustained, and the resolution temporarily postponed.

Mr. Kakuokalani stated that the Molokai committee had not had time to prepare its report and required more time. Time granted.

For the new quarters committee Senator White reported that some changes had been found necessary and that carpenters were now at work. Mr. White doubted that the house was safe unless supports were placed beneath the floor. On motion of Cecil Brown the superintendent of public works will be requested to examine and report on the condition of the building.

Mr. White's resolution was amended by Cecil Brown so as to make the number of copies of the journal to be printed 500 in place of 150. Half of these are to be in Hawaiian and half in English. Mr. Achi read a joint resolution requesting Congress to order an election in Hawaii for an election and Constitutional convention with a view to securing Statehood.

On motion of Mr. White consideration was postponed until Wednesday in order that copies of the resolution might be printed and distributed.

The Governor's estimates for the biennial period were then taken up and made the order of the day. On motion of Cecil Brown a recess was taken to 1:30 p. m. when the bill be considered item by item.

THE DEAD LAWYER.

Sentiments of Respect for William A. Henshall.

On the motion of Paul Neumann the United States District Court, Judge Estee, adjourned this morning until tomorrow morning out of respect to the memory of the late William A. Henshall. The motion was seconded by Arthur A. Wilder. United States Attorney John C. Baird, suggested that a committee of three be appointed to prepare a minute to be spread on the records expressive of the feelings and sentiments of the bar in the loss of Mr. Henshall.

Judge Estee appointed as the committee, Paul Neumann, John C. Baird and Arthur A. Wilder.

In appointing the committee Judge Estee said: "The court wishes to say that Mr. Henshall tried a case in this court just before he left. His dignity and courtesy in court and his knowledge of the law gave faith to his clients and personal obligation to his clients and to the court. The court wishes at this time to express its deep regret at his untimely death."

In bringing the matter before the court, Mr. Neumann paid a fitting tribute to the personal character and professional ability of Mr. Henshall. Mr. Wilder and Mr. Baird in seconding this motion gave expression to their sentiments of respect for the deceased and to their feeling of loss in his death.

HOUSE BILL NO. 1 PASSED

IT APPROPRIATES FOR EXPENSES OF THE SESSION.

The question of Printing the Journal Comes Up Again and Printing is Tabu—Many Bills.

The House this morning passed House Bill No. 1, An Act appropriating $10,000 for the expenses of this session. It passed by the vote of 26 to 3, Kawakiki, Kanihio and Kanihio voting no. The House also resumed the action taken Friday providing for the daily printing of the journal, and furnishing such number of copies to Secretary Cooper as he desires. At least that is the understanding of most of the members. But some think differently and the question will probably be opened when it comes up approving the minutes tomorrow morning.

Makokau moved to reconsider the resolution ordering the printing, early in the session this morning, but the chair ruled the motion out of order at that time. Later Makokau renewed his motion and the resolution was indefinitely postponed.

Makokau claimed that after the House had elected Secretary Cooper, this was an effort on his part to crawl back. He also thought the wording of the resolution designating S. K. Pua as clerk to have charge of printing the journal was a reflection on the Secretary.

A communication was received in the House from H. M. Dow, clerk in the Sheriff's office, asking to be reimbursed by the legislature for $440, the total of certain amounts overpaid into the treasury by the Auditor's accounts. The communication was referred to the Committee on Accounts.

Makokau wanted to reconsider the motion to have the House Journal printed from day to day. Emmelhuth objected to reconsider. It was customary in most legislatures to have the minutes of each day's session in printed form on the desks of the members at the beginning of the next session. Any corrections the House had to make could be made with resetting the whole matter. Mossman also objected to reconsider.

It was customary in most legislatures to have the minutes of each day's session in printed form on the desks of the members at the beginning of the next session. Any corrections the House had to make could be made with resetting the whole matter. Mossman also objected to reconsider.

A communication from the Makawao Road Board was presented by Beckley. It set forth the needs of the roads of that district. It gave the estimate of the amount of money to be furnished by the board to the Superintendent of Public Works, but which that official had cut down materially in his estimates. The communication set forth that there were 160 miles of road in that district. Many of the roads were on the slopes of Hakalau and were subject to damage by rains. The recent rains had done an immense amount of damage, probably $10,000 worth. A new survey of the road to Kailua would be necessary. The communication was signed by W. O. Allen.

The communication on Beckley's motion was laid on the table to be taken up when the appropriations are considered. As chairman of the Committee on Public Health, Representative Beckley asked further time to report on the petition and to ask for the repeal of certain quarantine laws and regulations.

Robertson asked leave to introduce the bill of which he had given notice, relating to the criminal jurisdiction of District Magistrates. The bill was read for the first time by title.

Prendergast from the Committee on Printing reported printed copies of House bills Nos. 8, 9 and 10.

J. W. Kelioka, gave notice of intention to introduce a bill entitled "An Act to provide for the construction of a road from Kailua, North Kona to Pahala, Kauai."

Robertson gave notice of intention to introduce "An Act relating to the sale of alcohol, amending section 15, and repealing section 10, 13 and 14 of Act 64 of the session laws of 1896," and "An Act to amend section 2 of Chapter 1 of the Penal Code defining felonies and misdemeanors."

Dickey gave notice of intention to introduce the following bills: "An Act Empowering District Magistrates to issue commissions to take testimony," "An Act providing for judgments by default in suits upon contracts before District Magistrates," "An Act to repeal section 1 of Chapter 55 of the penal code of 1899 and chapter 36 of the session laws of 1899 relating to the desertion of husband or wife."

The following bills were introduced: By Robertson, relating to practice and procedure in criminal cases amending sections 1, 2, 3 and 4 of Chapter XL of the session laws of 1896; An Act relating to the criminal jurisdiction of District Magistrates and amending section 1 of Act 40 of the laws of 1896 and section 11 of Chapter 57 of the laws of 1892.

The House then took a recess to 1:30 p. m.

The House this afternoon passed a few bills to second reading, and then on motion of Dickey, adjourned in honor of inauguration day.

PUT IN FOR COAL.

The United States transport Wyfield came into port shortly before noon today to renew her supply of coal. She left San Francisco on February 20th bound for Manila with supplies but encountered high seas and strong variable winds. She was kept back four days by the winds and finally after the storm abated found that the coal supply was decreased so the run to Manila could not be made. She expects to clear within 48 hours.

INSPECTORS TO LEAVE

HURRY OF SEAMEN TO TAKE THE EXAMINATIONS.

Boats Not Inspected Now Will Have to Wait or Journey to San Francisco For It.

The service of the Federal Inspectors of Hulls and Boilers is drawing to a close in this district. Tomorrow will be their final day as they are trying to close up the business here in time to leave on the Mariposa for San Francisco. G. H. Whitney, inspector of hulls, and C. F. Lathers, inspector of boilers and their clerk, G. D. Clagett have had their hands full the last two or three days with the various examinations of seamen and the inspection of the vessels about the port.

Practically all of the craft plying in these waters have been inspected and been granted the necessary license. Several of the smaller craft will have to be inspected but as there is not much labor or time compared with the details the inspectors hope to finish it all up by this afternoon or early tomorrow.

As a rule, the men down in this district who have taken the examination have done very well. Only one applicant for a master's license failed outright and he was a native. The other skippers managed to worry through and now can hold their commissions aloft with pride for they bear the stamp of Uncle Sam's approval.

The latter have not fared so well, however. About half of them have been unable to get through the examination. The engineers have been able to pass and all now have certificates. Any vessel or any officer who have thus far failed to enter for inspection and examination respectively, will have to journey to San Francisco for their commission. If any of the masters have not the necessary paper they will be compelled to relinquish their vessel. The inspectors will make a decided change in climate for from here in the balmy south they will journey to Juneau, Alaska, where their headquarters have been for several years.

IN THE COURTS.

In the United States District Court this morning, the case of the Robert R. Hind vs. Brigantine Consuelo was referred to United States Commissioner Robinson to take testimony and report as soon as possible. This is a claim for salvage at Mahukona arising during the late kona storm at Mahukona.

The resignation of James D. Avery as deputy clerk was accepted and Fred C. Hane was appointed to his position. He is from California and arrived here by the Mariposa.

The attorneys for the plaintiff in the case of Volcano Stables vs. Hayashi and Y. Kaula have given notice to leave the case on the Supreme Court calendar.

The same notice has been given in the case of F. Erickson vs. Volcano Stables et al., and also in the case of Robert Gillespie vs. Robert McBride.

ANCHORED OFF OF PORT.

John D. Spreckels Waiting for Orders From Her Agents.

The brig John D. Spreckels, was sighted early this morning. It was thought strange that the vessel did not come in and when the Fisheries with her usual enterprise failed to start after the ship there was some question raised as to the why the tug laid up to the side of the dock.

It appears that the Spreckels is merely in ballast and her master is stopping at this port for orders. He did not desire to enter this port unless absolutely necessary. He communicated with the agents of the company and they will notify him when he can leave. He may be ordered to discharge the ballast and take a load of freight to the Coast. The vessel is returning to San Francisco from Guam whether she took a load of supplies recently.

STEELE'S WILL.

Filed for Record in the Circuit Court This Morning.

The will of the late A. C. Steele was filed for record with the clerk of the Circuit Court this morning. Attached to the will is Steele's Masonic obligations, apparently the will and in a Masonic form. The will is short and is as follows:

In the name of God, Amen. I Archibald Cooper Steele being of sound mind and memory, but knowing the uncertainty of human life, do now make and publish this my last will and testament, that is to say: I devise all my real and personal property to Miss Helen Willis, my future wife.

ARCH. COOPER STEELE (Seal). Signed, sealed, published, and declared by the said Arch. Cooper Steele, the testator, as and for his last will and testament; and we, at his request and in his presence, and in the presence of each other, have hereto subscribed our names as witnesses thereto, this 15th day of February, 1901.

P. PECK.
F. SOUZA.
JOHN T. MOIR.

Steele died at South Hilo, December 23, 1899, about a month after his marriage with Miss Willis. The will was admitted to probate by Judge Little, February 1, 1901. The widow is made executor under bonds of $500.

LEGISLATORS AT MOLOKAI

DEMONSTRATIONS OF GRIEF WERE ABSENT.

Leapers Delighted Over Chance They Had to Commemorate Their Troubles. Visitors Busy All the Time.

The legislative committees returned last night from the leper settlement of Molokai where they passed two days and a half making a carefully inquiry into conditions at that place. There was not a moment of their visit wasted. Every body was busy either with inspecting the various places of interest or else taking testimony in the investigations. Every opportunity was given the lepers to air their grievances and they were also permitted to express their ideas regarding the best means for improving their condition. During the course of an address Dr. Russell, the speaker of the senate announced to the lepers that the legislature intended giving them local government within a short time. This met with almost universal satisfaction.

Owing to a misunderstanding the W. O. Hall was late in starting for Molokai Friday night. In addition to the members of the Senate and House committees there were physicians, representatives of the press and other guests. The trip was very rough and practically every one felt the effects of the voyage. Kalaupapa was reached at day break and Saturday by 7 o'clock the ship's boats were busy taking the crowd ashore. The majority remained at the settlement at Kalaupapa to conduct the inquiry into the cause of the various complaints which had come from time to time. In addition to hearing the complaints, the committees took as its basis for work the petitions which were recently addressed to the legislature by the lepers in which they asked for certain reforms they thought were necessary. The matter contained in the petitions was evidently satisfactory to all as there was not a great deal of opposition manifested.

Contrary to expectation, the charges were deflected from the direction of Superintendent Reynolds and struck the Assistant Superintendent Mr. Freary who is himself a leper. Certain allegations were made however which Mr. Reynolds will be given an opportunity of explaining as soon as the matter will have been transcribed by the stenographer.

The visit to the settlement was different from any other inspection which has been made there in recent years. There was a disposition upon the part of the legislators to be thorough in their work and to ascertain every thing which needed their attention. The heartrending scenes and woeful laments which mark the reunion of friends and relatives were absent during the present trip. On the other hand the lepers seemed to realize that the coming of the party signified much to the inhabitants and their spirits were in full accord.

The Baldwin and Bishop homes were visited by the committees and the general conditions of affairs were found to be good. John Emmelhuth took a horse back ride yesterday to the head of the water system in Waipohu valley. He returned with his head heavy with important information and his body sore from bobbing about on a bumpy road. He had to there being limited accommodations at the house of Superintendent Reynolds to the ship in the evening. Sunday the surf became so heavy that it was impossible to send a boat inside after those on shore. The captain of the W. G. Hall waited to ascertain the wish of the belated members. It looked as if they would part company but help came at the settlement. A swimmer through the breakers at the risk of his life, with a message from Mr. Beckley instructing the Hall to go over to Waipohu where the crowd joined her. The landing at this place was made with great difficulty. Mr. Kakuokalani got a bad fall trying to climb out of the small boat onto the gang ladder at the side of the Hall. The trip home was very rough. Honolulu being reached about 12:30 last night.

SOME NEW IDEAS.

Captain Kenake Returns With a Few for Post Office.

Captain L. T. Kenake, assistant postmaster of Honolulu, who returned by the Mariposa on Saturday, learned a great deal on the Coast that will be used to advantage here in future. He was in about every large office from San Francisco to Los Angeles, and gleaned from each one of them some valuable pointer or pointers.

"I found that our system here compares very favorably with the best over there, although in certain details they are ahead of us. It is my intention to do all I can to establish these improvements."

Captain Kenake regretted very much the strike of a few weeks ago. At the same time he says that the stand taken by the young men was unreasonable. On the coast clerks have to work even longer hours than here, and nothing is thought of having to wait over to distribute belated mail.

THE CLAIMS COMMISSION

OLD PLAGUE OUTFIT BOBS UP SERENELY.

Asks for Wages for Thirty Days of Fuss and Feathers—Other Matters in Council Meeting.

The old fire claims commission wants money for its labor. It will be remembered that this commission was appointed originally and flourished for a short time only. J. A. Magoon today submitted a bill for expenses to the Executive. It is claimed that the commission was extant thirty days. After consideration, the matter was referred to the Legislature for such action as it might deem proper.

At the meeting this morning Governor Dole read a letter from Secretary Hitchcock, enclosing a letter from an Olax squatter, and asking information in regard to the same.

Governor Dole stated that his attention had been called to the fact that laborers on certain plantations were being worked on Sunday, and requested the Attorney-General to look into the matter.

The Governor also reported on the change of quarters proposed by and arranged for the Senate.

A Dole spoke of an amendment to the tax laws, making the taxes due semi-annually in place of annually. It is expected that this will remedy certain evils of the present system, under which taxes pour in all at once.

N. C. Akoni was refused a license to handle light wine and beer at a point near Hookea.

Mr. McCandless mentioned an application of Revenue Collector Chamberlain for an archway between his office and the revenue office. The reply will be that there is no money on hand for such purpose.

Mr. McCandless also spoke of the Tramways Company not keeping its tracks below ground as provided by law. He stated that Mr. Pain refuses to comply with the orders of the bureau. The council was of the opinion that the Tramways manager should be brought to his senses, and so advised the superintendent.

PORTO RICANS.

KAHULUI, March 2.—About 110 families of Porto Ricans arrived last Wednesday morning by the Claudine. They were divided between Paia and Waikulu plantations, the former receiving twenty families, and the remaining families and single men went to Waikulu to work for the Waikulu Sugar Co. This lot of people, although destitute, were more healthy than former arrivals. The many little children who came along, was an astonishment to kamaianas who have already seen so many destitute children.

SEALING VESSEL ENTERS.

Last Friday the British sealing schooner Borealis from Vancouver arrived at Waimea and was promptly boarded by Captain Macaulay of the customs service who informed Captain William Munro the master of the vessel that he was liable to a penalty for entering a place which was not a port of entry. Captain Munro lost no time in starting for Honolulu. He reached here yesterday and entered and cleared his vessel today. He paid the usual fees but was not fined. Captain Macaulay remained with the vessel during the absence of Captain Munro in order to hold her for any penalties which might be levied.
